

Please reject the NAB's petition 04-160. XM provides quality services at a fair price that are both informative and entertaining. Much like cable television or internet providers, XM is revolutionizing the content and delivery of a medium that has been stagnant for decades. Please support our right to this innovative service.

Thank You, Joe Elliott